Gliding through misty mornings and into soft sunsets

Cruiseco Adventurer's accommodation is spacious, private, and complemented by its bar, restaurant, lounge, sundeck, library, gym, and pool.

Each cabin on Cruiseco Adventurer features an ensuite, individual climate control, a comfortable sitting area, and a private balcony that gives you a front row seat of an irresistible panorama.

Pleasingly, all cabins are located on the outside of the ship and floor to ceiling 'french' doors ensure you'll miss none of the sights.

Amenities on board include robes, slippers and quality toiletries. However, there is even more on board to entice you out of your haven, including a menu of Asian and Western dishes expertly prepared by an executive chef.

Remember to pack your bathers because nothing compares to the views from our pool, and when it's time to reflect on your day of explorations, sip a drink in the bar, an air-conditioned floating oasis.

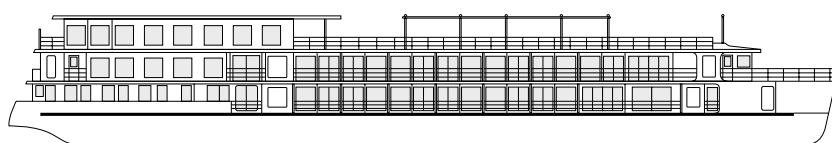

Main Deck cabins feature a balcony, floor to ceiling views, climate control, television, in-room seating, vanity, daily housekeeping, a safe and bottled water.

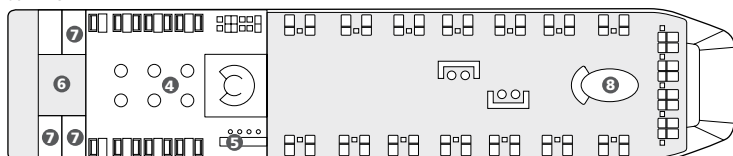

Upper Deck Cabins share the same quality appointments as those on the Main Deck but enjoy an elevated view.

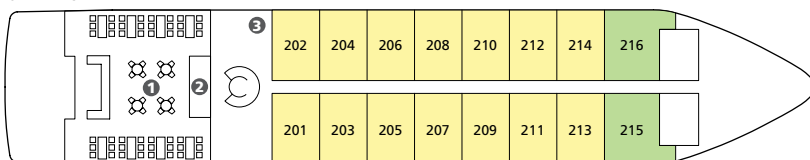

Deluxe Suites are the most spacious accommodation on board, and feature a separate lounge area.

11 NIGHTS FROM ONLY $4,799

An adventure that includes Vietnam's most dynamic city and Cambodia's 800 year old Angkor Wat.

Australia — Singapore — Saigon

DAY 1

Fly with Singapore Airlines to Saigon via Singapore. Upon arrival at Ho Chi Minh City Airport, meet with your local guide who will escort you to the Caravelle Hotel, Saigon.

Saigon (B,L)

DAY 2

Enjoy a morning sightseeing tour with your local guide, visiting the Reunification Palace (once known as the Presidential Palace), the picturesque colonial City Hall, General Post Office, Former US Embassy, Ben Thanh Market and Notre Dame Cathedral. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant and then return to your hotel. The afternoon is at your leisure.

Saigon — My Tho — Cai Be (B,L,D)

DAY 3

Today, transfer by coach to My Tho port to embark Cruiseco Adventurer. Welcome drinks and lunch will be served on board in the lounge, whilst cruising towards Cai Be. A gourmet dinner will be served on board, and later in the evening enjoy folk performances about life on the Mekong Delta. The ship will moor overnight midstream near Cai Be.

Cai Be — Sa Dec (B,L,D)

DAY 4

After breakfast, take a local boat to Cai Be. Visit the floating markets, the French Gothic Cathedral, a coconut candy factory, rice paper and pop rice factories. Return to the ship for lunch, served whilst we sail towards Sa Dec. This afternoon visit Sa Dec, the hometown of Marguerite Duras' lover, visit the old house of Huynh Thy Le, and the Fujian Temple. See the home of Marguerite Duras from across the river banks. Rejoin the Cruiseco Adventurer mid-afternoon and set sail for Tan Chau. This evening enjoy cocktails and dinner on board.

DAY 5

Today's highlight is Tan Chau. Enjoy sightseeing by local boats, navigating narrow channels to visit an evergreen island. Afterwards, go ashore to tour the town by rickshaw, visit factories where rattan mats and slippers are made. Then we return to the ship for lunch as we set sail for the border. In the afternoon, enjoy a fruit carving demonstration by the chef.

Sip cocktails in the evening followed by dinner with your fellow travellers.

Deluxe Suites accommodate 2 adults and 2 children (under 12) or 3 adults: 3rd and 4th passenger rates available on request. Prices include $180 per person air taxes (subject to change). Prices exclude accommodation in Singapore made necessary by flight schedules.

Phnom Penh (B,L,D)DAY 6

Tour Phnom Penh by bus to visit the Royal Palace, the spectacular Silver Pagoda, and the National Museum with its outstanding Khmer crafts. In the afternoon you will have the option to either visit the Khmer Rouge's grim Toul Sleng (S21 Detention Centre) and the Killing Fields; or you could spend the afternoon at your leisure. In the evening enjoy Khmer folk dancing and songs.

Phnom Penh, Chong Koh Village (B,L,D)DAY 7

The morning is at your leisure. At midday, the ship sails towards Chong Koh. Take a leisurely stroll through this silk-weaving village, visiting home-workshops making traditional silk and cotton handicrafts. Return to the ship and sail along the Mekong to Prek K'Dam. Enjoy a hearty lunch whilst sailing. Cocktails, dinner and onboard pianist await in the evening.

Oudong — Kampong Tralach (B,L,D)DAY 8

Following breakfast you will travel by coach to Oudong to visit a Buddhist monastery and meditation centre. After Oudong, travel 45 minutes by bus to Kampong Tralach, to visit Wat Kapong Tralach Pleu.

Here take an ox-cart ride to the Tonle River, travelling through the countryside, past rice fields and amused locals. Return to the ship in the evening and continue cruising to Kampong Chhnang. Later, join your tour guide for a lecture on board—Cambodia: The Past and Present.

Note: the Tonle Sap Lake's water level varies; an alternative itinerary may be followed if it's too low.

Kampong Chhnang, Tonle Lake (B,L,D)DAY 9

High water: Kampong Chhnang is a rural port town with busy markets. Mooring midstream, take a boat excursion into the lakeside wetlands. A stunning variety of birds can be seen along with the local life in the floating village. Return to the boat and cast off towards Tonle Lake while enjoying farewell cocktails. The ship moors near Siem Reap.

Low water: Kampong Chhnang is a rural port town with busy markets. Mooring midstream, take a boat excursion into the lakeside wetlands. A stunning variety of birds can be seen along with the local life in the floating village. Return to the boat for lunch. After lunch, the ship casts off for Prek Kdam, the cruise's final stop. Enjoy a farewell cocktail party this evening. The ship moors overnight in Prek Kdam.

Siem Reap (B)DAY 10

High water: Enjoy breakfast on board and then farewell the crew and guides. Disembark in Siem Reap and transfer by coach to Raffles Grand Hotel. This afternoon, enjoy a tour of Angkor Wat, the world's largest temple. This afternoon visit the magnificent Angkor Thom, the Khmer's last capital, Terrace of the Leper King, and the Bayon Temple.

Low water: Enjoy breakfast on board and then farewell the crew and guides. Next, transfer by bus around the lake to Siem Reap. Upon arrival in Siem Reap, check into Raffles Grand Hotel D'Angkor for the next two nights. This afternoon visit the magnificent Angkor Thom, the Khmer's last capital, Terrace of the Leper King, and the Bayon Temple.

Siem Reap (B,L)DAY 11

After breakfast, enjoy a tour to the magnificent Angkor Wat. Enjoy lunch at Café D'Angkor Restaurant before visiting Thommanon, Chau Say, Tevoda, Ta Keo and Ta Prohm.

Siem Reap — Singapore — Australia (B)DAY 12

DAY 3

High water: After breakfast, transfer by coach to the jetty and take a motor boat to Cruiseco Adventurer. Welcome drinks and lunch will be served on board. Soak up the scenery as you cruise towards Kampong Chhnang.

Enjoy the first gourmet dinner on board with fellow travellers. Moor overnight on Tonle Sap Lake.

Low water: Transfer by coach around the lake to Prek Kdam, stopping en-route at Kampong Thom. Upon arrival this afternoon, embark Cruiseco Adventurer. Welcome drinks and lunch will be served on board. At night, enjoy your first gourmet dinner with fellow travellers.

Kampong Chhnang, Kampong Tralach (B,L,D) DAY 4

Mooring midstream, take a motor boat excursion into the lake-side wetlands that form the mouth of the river—complete with a floating village. Return to ship and sail towards Kampong Tralach. En-route you may attend a lecture on Cambodia: The Past and the Present in the Saigon Lounge.

Kampong Tralach, Oudong, Phnom Penh (B,L,D) DAY 5

In the morning, take an ox-cart ride to Vihara belonging to Wat Kapong Tralach Pleu. Buses await for you to board and travel about forty five minutes to Oudong. Attend a Buddhist blessing ceremony and visit a Buddhist meditation centre.

Deluxe Suites accommodate 2 adults and 2 children (under 12) or 3 adults: 3rd and 4th passenger rates available on request. Prices include $180 per person air taxes (subject to change). Prices exclude accommodation in Singapore made necessary by flight schedules.

Afterwards, take a short bus ride back to the Cruiseco Adventurer at Prek Kdam. Back on board in the early evening the ship sets sail towards the capital Phnom Penh. Following dinner, a Khmer folk show awaits at the Saigon Lounge. Afterwards, you may like to relax in one of the many bars located just opposite the dock as the ship stays overnight in Phnom Penh.

Phnom Penh (B,L,D)

DAY 6

Tour Phnom Penh by bus to visit the Royal Palace, the spectacular Silver Pagoda, and the National Museum with its outstanding Khmer crafts. In the afternoon you will have the option to either visit the Khmer Rouge's grim Toul Sleng (S21 Detention Centre) and the Killing Fields; or you may prefer to spend the afternoon at your leisure in Phnom Penh. In the evening enjoy Khmer folk dancing and songs in the Saigon Lounge.

DAY 7

Today is a day of cruising the main Mekong Channel, an international shipping route. Enjoy the morning at leisure on board. During the afternoon there will be a cooking class by the executive chef. Arrive in Tan Chau, the first Vietnamese town on the majestic Mekong River. The Cruiseco Adventurer will moor on the river overnight, enjoy dinner and cocktails on board.

Tan Chau, Sa Dec (B,L,D)

DAY 8

Today's highlight is Tan Chau—a small town untouched by tourism. Enjoy sightseeing by local boats, navigating narrow channels to visit an evergreen island. Afterwards, go ashore to tour the town by rickshaw, visit factories where rattan mats and slippers are made. In the afternoon, cruise downstream to Sa Dec. There will be an onboard lecture Vietnam: Past and Present. The ship arrives in Sadec during dinner and moors midstream overnight.

Sadec, Cai Be (B,L,D)

DAY 9

Today, visit Sa Dec, the hometown of Marguerite Duras's lover, visit the old house of Huynh Thuy Le's, pagodas, and the Fujian Temple, and join the bantering of local markets along the paved river banks. Across these banks, you will pass by the home of Marguerite Duras. In the afternoon, take a local boat to Cai Be, visit the French Gothic Cathedral, a coconut candy factory, rice paper and pop rice factories.

Ho Chi Minh (D)

Day 1

Arrival in Ho Chi Minh where you will be met and transferred to the Caravelle Hotel by your local English-speaking guide. Day is at leisure.

Ho Chi Minh City, formerly known as Saigon, is one of Asia's most evocative cities and offers a wonderful mix of new high-rise towers and roadside noodle stalls, contrasting with the elegance of its Colonial French architecture.

Ho Chi Minh (B, L)

Day 2

After breakfast, served at your hotel, visit the Cholon area with your local guide.

Visit Cha Tam Church and see the impressive Thien Hau Temple, dedicated to a sea goddess who locals believe to protect fisherman and sailors, and where coils of incense hang from the ornate ceilings, burning for up to three months at a time.

Continue to Binh Tay Market and its surrounding area. Also see the tiny Cao Dai temple, where caodoists, a small eclectic religion pray for gods of different religions. Return to your hotel for lunch, and enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.

Ho Chi Minh (B)

Day 3

After breakfast, if you're beginning your tour, you'll have a leisure day to enjoy this bustling city. If you've extended your tour in Ho Chi Minh, you have free time until the scheduled time of your transfer to the airport for your flight home.

Hanoi

Day 1

On your arrival in Hanoi you'll be met by your local English-speaking guide and transferred to the Melia Hotel Hanoi. Enjoy the rest of this day at your leisure. Often described as 'old-fashioned', Hanoi is full of sidewalk cafes, pavement barbers, wide tree-lined bicycle-filled boulevards and elegant colonial French mansions.

Hanoi (B)

Day 2

After breakfast, you will start a tour of some of this intriguing city's highlights. Enjoy its tree-lined streets and then explore its lakes, parks, mansions and the intriguing Old French Quarter. Pass by Hoan Kiem Lake, (Lake of the Restored Sword) en-route to one of the city's many superb museums (including Army, History or Fine Arts). Continue on to the Temple of Literature, built in 1070 and dedicated to Confucius.

Next, take to the streets for a fascinating walking tour of the Ancient Quarter or 36 Streets District. This dense corner of the city was the centre of commerce where goods were sold under Aged homes and temples intersperse with stores in this souvenir hunter's paradise. The rest of the day is at leisure.

Ho Chi Minh - Da Nang - Hoi An

Day 1

Fly from Ho Chi Minh to Da Nang. On arrival you'll be met by your local English-speaking guide and transferred to the Boutique Hotel Hoi An. The rest of the day is at leisure.

One of Vietnam's most ancient cities, Da Nang was the centre of the Cham Dynasty (2nd century) and boasts the world's largest and most impressive collection of Cham artefacts.

One of Asia's most spectacular beaches, unwelcome visitors have also made their mark here. The city was the landing-point for invading French troops and, decades later, the US Marines.

The neighbouring Marble Mountains are another fascinating point of interest. Their five craggy limestone peaks are held to represent the five elements of the universe.

Hoi An (B)

Day 2

This morning you will begin to explore Hoi An's old town with your local guide. This is an extraordinary jewel in a country so ravaged by war, it has managed to remain untouched. As you wander the traffic-free streets of this ancient port it isn't difficult to imagine yourself amidst the sailors and merchants of the 18th century when it was one of Asia's busiest trade centres.

Enjoy a walking tour of pagodas, historic houses, the local market and the covered bridge. Afterwards, you'll be transferred back to the resort and have some free time to discover the town at your own pace or enjoy the beach.

Hoi An (B)

Day 3

After breakfast, you have free time to enjoy Hoi An. At the scheduled time, transfer to Da Nang airport for your onward flight.

FAQ's

Is travel insurance required?

Travel insurance is a mandatory requirement on all Cruiseco Authentic Asia Holidays. Please note that some of the destinations we visit are remote and emergency services may be required. We recommend that you obtain travel insurance before paying a deposit. Failure to obtain travel insurance will not waive any fees in the event that you need to cancel your trip.

Is a doctor on board and do I need any injections before I travel?

There's no doctor on board. Limited medical facilities are available, and in the event of an emergency, the vessel will head to shore immediately. It's recommended you check with your doctor that you are fit for travel. Your doctor should also check as to whether any prophylactic drugs or inoculations are required.

What facilities are available in the cabins?

All cabins have their own air-conditioning, flat screen TV, DVD player, hair dryer, bath robe, mini-safe, luggage storage, wardrobe, reading lights, writing desk, mini fridge, chairs and coffee table. Cabins do not have mini bars. All cabins have their own twin balcony with a chair and table.

Is there air-conditioning on board?

Your cabin has its own air-conditioning unit which can be adjusted for your comfort. It is not recommended to over-cool your cabin as the sudden change from outside temperature to a chilled cabin can bring on colds, respiratory illnesses and even stomach upsets.

What is the dress code?

The atmosphere on board is informal and relaxed. Comfortable, casual attire during the day and the evenings are smart-casual.

What drinks are included?

All soft drinks, local beers, local spirits, local mineral water, coffee and tea, and wine with lunch and dinner are included. Imported spirits, liquors, espresso and imported mineral water will be charged to your stateroom account. A complimentary daily cocktail of local spirits, will be served during the daily briefing.

What currency is used on board?

Cruiseco Adventurer's onboard currency is the Vietnamese Dong. You will have a ship account which lets you sign a bill for all purchases and services throughout the cruise. All onboard charges will be in Vietnamese Dong, and accounts can be settled by credit card only, cash is not accepted. Note only Mastercard and Visa cards are accepted.

The local currencies are the Cambodian Riel and the Vietnamese Dong. It's advisable to take a small amount of local currency when going ashore. There is a limited money exchange service available on board.

Are there laundry facilities?

A laundry bag is provided for your needs and a laundry list is available in your cabin. Laundry is collected each morning when your room is made up and will be returned the following day. It's not recommended to have 'whites' washed on board. Charges for the laundry service will be made to your on board account.

Is there Internet access on board?

Free wireless internet connection is available in the lounge while mooring in Phnom Penh and sporadically on the river. There may be blackspots in rural areas along the river.

Are gratuities included?

Gratuities are included in your package fare. Guests are not expected to tip individually or collectively, including the staff on board the ship, local guides and drivers during your holiday.

Is the water on board suitable for drinking?

The vessel's water supply comes from the river after passing through a sterilisation plant. It is suitable for washing and brushing teeth but NOT drinking. Bottled water is provided free of charge for drinking. Never accept ice in drinks and avoid ice creams, crushed sugar cane, salads or the skins of fruits when ashore.

Is smoking permitted on board?

Smoking is only permitted outside on the open areas of the sun deck. Smoking is not permitted in cabins or balconies.

What type of meals are provided on board?

Breakfast is buffet style. Lunch and dinner are table service. We offer a fusion of Asian and Western cuisine and there are always vegetarian dishes on offer. Any special meal requirements will be made on a 'request' basis only and cannot be guaranteed. Please advise your Cruiseco Travel Agent of your requirements at time of booking.

Can I have a double bed?

All cabins can be converted into a twin or double.

Are there lifts on board and wheelchair facilities?

There are no lifts and the ship is not equipped for passengers travelling in a wheelchair. The vessel regularly moors where paths can be muddy and slippery. It's recommended passengers be relatively fit, able-bodied and able to walk over uneven surfaces. Please consult your Cruiseco travel agent if you have further questions.

Will my mobile phone work?

GSM phones work for nearly all parts of the Mekong where you will travel. The exceptions are a short section downstream of Kampong Chhnang and in the midst of the Tonle Lake, in Cambodia. Other areas have excellent coverage.

Will I need a visa to travel?

Australian passengers require both a Vietnam and Cambodian Visa to travel. You must organise your Vietnam Visa before departing Australia.

Passports must include 6 months validity from your return date to Australia. It is your responsibility to ensure you have valid travel documents and all the required visas.

Passengers on the upstream itinerary (Saigon to Angkor) can have their Cambodian Visa organised on board for a fee of US$40—charged to the passenger's onboard account. Two passport size photos will be required and must be obtained prior to commencing travel.

while in Cambodia you will need the Riel

Booking Conditions

Reservations and payments

Bookings for these exclusive Cruiseco Adventurer Holidays must be made with a Cruiseco travel agent.

On confirmation of your booking, a written confirmation will be sent to your Cruiseco travel agent. You will be given 7 days to pay a deposit of $1,000 per person. This deposit secures your holiday as requested. Failure to pay the deposit by the due date may result in the cancellation of your booking.

Final payment is due 90 days prior to sailing. If your booking is made within 90 days prior to sailing, full payment, along with details of your travel insurance policy will be due immediately.

Price and Brochure Accuracy

The fares quoted in this brochure are shown in Australian Dollars and are based on a twin sharing basis, unless specified as a single cabin category. All rates are subject to change with or without notice. Please Note: The information and prices shown in this brochure may have changed by the time you come to book your cruise. Pricing is correct as of 30 November 2017. Whilst every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the brochure and prices at the time of printing, regrettably errors do occasionally occur. You must therefore ensure that you check all details of your holiday with your travel agent at the time of booking.

What's not included in your holiday price

Passport and visa fees, insurance of all kinds, laundry, phone calls, beverages (except for those noted as being included), additional accommodation made necessary by flight schedules, transfers for flight arrivals that are not the same as our pre arranged group flights, and items of a personal nature are not included in the holiday costs advertised in this brochure.

Itinerary changes

Itineraries are subject to change due to weather, road conditions, bridge construction, and other factors beyond our control. The order of the trips may also change. Should a location or region become unviable, we will make every effort to visit an equivalent location or region. Any changes to itineraries will not result in eligibility for a refund.

Travel documentation

Travel documents will be sent to you approximately 14 days prior to departure from Australia (providing full payment, booking form, and insurance details have been received). If you are departing Australia earlier, please ask your Cruiseco travel agent to request your travel documents in good time.

Travel insurance

Travel insurance is mandatory for Cruiseco's Authentic Asia Holidays. We recommend that you obtain Travel insurance before paying a deposit. Failure to obtain travel insurance will not waive any cancellation fees in the event that you need to cancel your trip.

Booking changes and cancellations

In the unfortunate event that you should have to cancel your holiday, we must be notified in writing. The day that we receive the written notification, will be considered the date that your cancellation has been made. Certain cancellation fees apply to your holiday if cancelled after a deposit or final payment has been made.

Booking changes

A fee of $25 per person will be charged for any revision or alteration made to a reservation after the booking is confirmed unless the change increases the value of the booking. This does not apply to full name changes which are considered a cancellation.

Cancellations and cancellation fees

Notice of cancellation must be made in writing to your Cruiseco travel agent. The following scale of charges (includes GST) will apply when notice of cancellation is given prior to sailing.

Days before sailing cancellation received	Cancellation charges
Administration fee on all cancellations	$100 per person
Over 90 days	Loss of deposit plus any airfare cost
60-89 days	50% of total holiday cost plus admin fee
30-59 days	75% of total holiday cost plus admin fee
29 days or less	100% of total holiday cost

Other conditions

It is your responsibility to ensure you have read all of the Booking Conditions and to provide valid travel documents. Ask your Travel Agent for advice concerning passport and visa requirements.

Cruiseco's statement of business practice

Your Cruiseco agent is required to provide you with a copy of Cruiseco's "Statement of Business Practice" upon booking your Cruiseco holiday.

Booking arrangements

Your booking arrangements are to be made by your Travel Agent and the person effecting the booking, shall be deemed to have accepted the booking conditions.
